Homicide

July 24, 2009
*Correction***

This morning at approximately 8:20 a.m., deputies from the San Xavier District responded to the 3400 blk. of East Alvord Road in reference to an unknown problem. Neighbors had become concerned when they had not seen a resident for two days. They attempted to make contact with the resident, and when he didn't answer the door they looked into his residence to see him lying on the floor. The neighbors called 911. Deputies entered the residence to find an adult male deceased from obvious signs of trauma.

The Pima County Sheriff's Homicide Unit responded to further investigate. At this time, detectives are seeking anyone who may have seen anything suspicious in the area over the last few days. Anyone with information is asked to call 911 or 88-CRIME.

Detectives are not releasing the name of the victim pending next of kin notification. Autopsy is scheduled for today.
