Clarence W. Dupnik
Sheriff of Pima County

Homicide

June 18, 2009

On June 18, 2009, at approximately 7:00 p.m., deputies from the Ajo District responded to the 500 blk. of W. Ocotillo Avenue in Ajo, Arizona in reference to an unknown problem. According to the reportee, two young girls had been riding their bicycles in the wash area when they saw another female lying in the wash. They ran to the closest residence and reported the incident to the homeowner. The homeowner called 911.

Upon arrival, deputies found a seven-year-old female deceased from obvious signs of trauma.

Pima County Sheriff's Homicide detectives responded to further investigate. At this time, detectives are investigating the incident as a homicide. No motive has been established. The investigation continues.
